

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

RCC is proud to host
Assistant Chief Mark Fortune from the Rappahannock Tribe.
Learn about the Tribe, its programs,
outreach and traditions.

SCAN TO REGISTER!

Tuesday, November 21, 12:30 p.m.
Lecture halls in Glens and Warsaw
Also available on Zoom.

Fortune is the director of river programs and a Tribal citizen with the Rappahannock Tribe. He began serving as the assistant chief in 1994, was project manager of the construction of the Tribe's three-building government complex and is responsible for the Youth Leadership Council. Fortune is a member of the Tribe's Maskapow Drum group and led the Pow Wow planning committee for years until he trained one of his sons to assume leadership in 2022. Fortune and Chief Anne Richardson developed the Return to the River Youth Education Program.