The Affordable Connectivity Program

Provides eligible households with a discount on broadband service and connected devices. Anyone receiving a Federal Pell Grant during the current award year qualifies. Call 877-384-2575

https://www.fcc.gov/acp

The Benefit provides:
- Up to $30/month discount for internet service
- Up to $75/month discount for households on qualifying tribal lands
- A one-time discount of up to $100 for a laptop, desktop computer, or tablet purchased through a participating provider.

WHAT IS IT?

The Affordable Connectivity Program is an FCC program that helps connect families and households struggling to afford internet service.

The benefit provides:
- Up to $30/month discount for internet service;
- Up to $75/month discount for households on qualifying tribal lands; and
- A one-time discount of up to $100 for a laptop, desktop computer, or tablet purchased through a participating provider.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

A household is eligible for the Affordable Connectivity Program if the household income is at or below 200% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines, or if a member of the household meets at least one of the criteria below:

- Participates in any of the following assistance programs: SNAP, Medicaid, Federal Public Housing Assistance, Veterans Pension or Survivor Benefits, SSI, WIC, or Lifeline;
- Participates in any of the following Tribal specific programs: Bureau of Indian Affairs General Assistance, Tribal TANF, Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations, or Tribal Head Start (income based);
- Participates in the Free and Reduced-Price School Lunch Program or the School Breakfast Program, including through the USDA Community Eligibility Provision;
- Has a federal Pell Grant during the current award year; or
- Meets the eligibility criteria for a participating broadband provider’s existing low-income internet program.

Rappahannock Community College will provide an additional $250 grant per semester to students whose households participate in the ACP.

The grant will be applied to a student’s account. RCC anticipates funds to be available for fall, spring and summer of the 2022-23 academic year or until budget is exhausted.

The Federal Communication Commission's Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP) https://www.fcc.gov/acp - provides benefits to ensure families can afford Broadband for school, work, healthcare and more. Families with incomes at or below 200% of the federal poverty guideline are eligible to apply.

To receive the grant, please complete the following survey by October 31, 2022 (for fall 2022 semester) and upload a copy a recent cable bill for a student’s primary residence that indicates participation (credit reflected) in the ACP program. If household recently enrolled in ACP and credit is not reflected on current bill, please upload confirmation email from program by Oct. 31st deadline. Students will be prompted to complete this application form at the beginning of each semester as long as funds are available.
